Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request of 24 April 2023, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA). For reference your original enquiry was as follows:

I am curious to know if the UK CAA give access to public drone registration data. We are a media company and are interested in drone trends. We are interested how many drone organisations have been registered in 2021 and 2022. With this data we can predict market changes and market competition of the drone industry in UK. Are these data publicly available? I remember some years ago there was a list of approved drone organizations online. If not, can I apply for these according the freedom of information act?

Your request has been considered in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). I can confirm that the CAA holds information relevant to your request. The information being released to you is as follows:

Organisations that obtained an Organisation Operator ID in 2021 and 2022

2021: 4,413
2022: 5,469

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
